REPLY TO ATTENTION OF

Office of the Commanding General

Ladies and Gentlemen:

On behalf of the Army Command, Control, Communications, Computers, Intelligence, Electronics Warfare and Sensors (C4IEWS) Team, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2003 Advance Planning Briefing for Industry (APBI). The theme of this year's conference is "Team C4IEWS and Industry ... Providing Superior C4ISR Capabilities to the Warfighter."

The APBI Program continues to strengthen the government's partnership with industry to ensure the most sophisticated, technologically superior equipment is available for our soldiers. The exchange of information at these forums is key to enabling our military to maintain and enhance America's warfighting edge.

A hard copy of the proceedings and a compact disk that contains information being presented at the APBI is being provided to you. The presentations include our Army requirements, sustainment efforts and corresponding contract opportunities available to industry within the next five years.

I thank you for your participation in the APBI and hope you pursue future business opportunities with Team C4IEWS.

Sincerely,

William H. Russ
Major General, U.S. Army
Commanding
